$400,000 MAIL LOOT IS FOUND IN BALTIMORE

Postal Inspectors Make Lucky Arrest of Man Carrying Securities.

STOLEN FROM FERRY

Authorities Sought Forger but Found E. J. Quigley, Held as Robber.

SAYS HE FOUND SATCHEL

Accused Declares He Did Not Know Grip Picked Up on Train Contained Valuables.

(Special to The New York Sun and The Washington Herald.)

Baltimore, Md., April 21.—Postal inspectors this afternoon went to Union Station looking for a man who had forged a money order. They did not find him, but instead stumbled into one of the biggest catches in years—probably the biggest in the history of Baltimore. Instead of the forger they picked up, almost wholly by accident, E. J. Quigley, as he stepped from a train from New York, arrested him and found in a little black satchel $400,000 in securities stolen from a mail truck on a New York ferryboat in February. These securities are now in a vault in the postoffice. Quigley is in a cell in the Central Police Station, held for the Federal authorities, charged with the robbery.

The loot taken from the satchel is the remainder of the celebrated $1,000,000 robbery that startled the country by the daring of the robbers.

Missing Jewels Also Found.

By a strange fate Quigley was arrested in Baltimore only a few hours after Thomas F. Benson, alias John Bennett, had been indicted by the Federal grand jury in New York for alleged complicity in the robbery. He was arrested while attempting to pawn jewels said to have been stolen from one of the pouches. Four in all were stolen from the mail truck, two being from Boston. Nervousness and peculiar actions on the part of Quigley caused his arrest. He was fidgety and casting hurried glances about the station when the inspectors first saw him. He resembled slightly the man they were seeking. He was approached, and startled by the action of the inspectors, started to put up a fight. The odds were against him, and he was soon overpowered. When searched at Postoffice Inspectors' Headquarters a heavy caliber revolver was found in his hip pocket. The satchel was then opened and the securities dumped on the desk.

Says He Found Satchel.

Quigley denied all knowledge of what the satchel contained. He said he picked it up upon a train after it had been left behind by a woman. He said he was on his way to New Orleans. The majority of the securities, according to the postoffice inspectors, are from Baltimore and are negotiable. Quigley explained his presence in Baltimore by saying he desired to see the city. He had no ticket for New Orleans.

T. R. TO INVADE WEST BEFORE CONVENTION

Colonel Will Deliver Memorial Day Address in Kansas City and May Enlarge Tour.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., April 21.—Col. Roosevelt will probably make two invasions of the Middle West before the Republican and Progressive national conventions meet on June 7. Besides his trip to Chicago, where he will speak on the evening of April 23, it is more than likely that he will go to Kansas City to deliver the memorial address on Memorial Day, an invitation to that effect having come to him today from representative citizens of that city who are war veterans and members of civic preparedness and business organizations.

Of still greater interest, particularly to the delegates to the Republican convention, is the special invitation that Col. Roosevelt, after having delivered a patriotic address in Kansas City, might enlarge the tour to include two or three other large cities, and then enter Chicago on the morning of the convention meeting, while the effect of talks on preparedness and Americanism was still fresh in the minds of the Middle West.

Administration Indorsed.

Springfield, Ill., April 21.—The Democratic State convention held here today was as harmonious as an Easter church service. District delegates to the national convention were selected, and the delegation was instructed to vote as a unit for the renomination of President Wilson. The national and State administrations are indorsed. Senator Lewis and "all Democratic members of Congress from Illinois who have supported the policies of President Wilson" were commended.

WOMAN DRAG HUNT VICTIM

Miss Mabel Flynn, of Warrenton, Va., Famous Rider, Dies from Injuries.

ROBIN ADAIR WAS ONE OF HER BEST-KNOWN MOUNTS

Miss Mabel Flynn, 32, of Warrenton, Va., who was one of this country's most famous horsewomen, died at 5:30 yesterday afternoon at Emergency Hospital as the result of injuries received in a drag hunt at Warrenton on April 15. Miss Flynn was brought to the Washington hospital immediately after the accident. She regained consciousness that day but her injuries were such that recovery was despaired of by the physicians soon after she was brought to the Capital.

Miss Flynn was riding to the hounds at the Warrenton Hunt Club when the accident happened. She was trying to take a fence when her mount fell. Miss Flynn was thrown and the horse landed on her, breaking several bones and injuring her internally. That afternoon she was brought here for treatment.

Miss Flynn was one of the best known woman riders in her State, having ridden at practically all the horse shows in Virginia. She rode frequently at Madison Square Garden in New York and at Long Branch. She had been in attendance at many of the recent meetings in New York.

Perhaps the most famous mount she rode was Robin Adair, the property of Mr. Johnson, which won nearly 150 blue ribbons in this country. She was riding this famous horse when he won his hundredth blue ribbon. Her sister, Mrs. Blair Johnson, is equally well-known as a rider, and her brother-in-law, Mr. Johnson, is secretary and treasurer of the Virginia Horse Show Association, as well as the manager of the Warrenton Hunt Club.

WILSON WITH BABY SAYRE

Casts Aside Office Cares to Become Grandfather for Hour.

PRESIDENT AND BRIDE VISIT PHILADELPHIA

(Special to The New York Sun and The Washington Herald.)

Philadelphia, April 21.—Mexican bandits and German U-boat commanders were temporarily forgotten today when President Wilson, with Mrs. Wilson, hurried to Philadelphia to pay his first visit to 4-week-old Miss Eleanor Axson Wilson Sayre, the President's latest granddaughter.

For nearly a full hour at least all the thunder of the guns heard around the world were drowned out by the cooing and crooning of the baby rocked in the arms of the President grandfather in a private room of the Jefferson Hotel.

President Wilson spent his whole hour's respite in this city with the baby. He lifted it up and bounced it on his knees. He pinched its chubby cheeks and patted its chin with its tiny hands. For an hour he was grandfather altogether, and only.

And the baby, as its nurse, Miss Boyer, later proclaimed, was on its very best behavior all the time, giving its distinguished grandfather the time of his life.

So interested was President Wilson in his little granddaughter that he remained with her when Mrs. Wilson, escorted by Dr. E. P. Davis and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, made a tour of inspection through the hospital wards.

Unusual precautions were taken to protect the President on his visit to the Sayre baby.

Fall from Cliff Kills Writer.

BERLIN DELAY NETTLES U. S.

State Department Maintains that Holiday Should Not Hold Up Consideration.

GERMANY IS EXPECTED TO TAKE TIME IN REPLYING

Secretary of State Lansing announced yesterday afternoon that the American note demanding that Germany immediately declare and effect an abandonment of her present methods of submarine warfare was now officially before the German government.

Ambassador Gerard reported yesterday that he delivered the note to the Berlin foreign office at 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. He accompanied his report with information which is not encouraging.

Germany, it now appears, is not inclined to take any immediate action one way or the other on the President's demand. The first news that has come from Berlin indicates that the foreign office will consider the American note at its convenience, and this is understood to have made a very bad impression here. Officials of the State Department said yesterday that the German excuse that no consideration could be given to diplomatic matters on holidays was a poor one.

ILLINOIS G. O. P. FOR PEACE.

Convention Approves Senator Sherman's Declaration.

Peoria, Ill., April 21.—The most notable incident of the Republican State convention held here today was a pronounced anti-war demonstration. Senator Sherman, to whom the Illinois delegation is pledged to vote for the Presidential nomination, evoked wild cheers when he declared it was the nation's duty to remain at peace and that it was the duty of Americans to stay out of the war zone.

SEIZED PAPERS ARRIVE HERE

Von Igel Documents Will Be Turned Over Immediately to German Ambassador.

TEUTON EMPIRE AROUSED OVER BREACH OF CUSTOM

The much-discussed papers which agents of the Department of Justice seized from Wolf von Igel, of the German Embassy, and which have been demanded by Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, reached Washington yesterday. They will be turned over to the German Ambassador, according to implicit instructions from the State Department.

It is probable that the United States government will make a formal apology to Germany for having seized them contrary to the well-established law of nations which protects diplomats and their property, according to officials at the State Department.

The tension caused by the arrest of von Igel and the seizure of his papers has increased in German official circles and it is understood that the greatest indignation has been aroused throughout the German Empire. Regardless of what the papers may contain, Secretary Lansing has recognized Germany's right to demand their return.

Counsellor Folk, of the State Department, on Thursday promised Count von Bernstorff that the papers would be sent to the German Embassy when they reached here. Any effort to have the ambassador identify them will fail, it is said, as the ambassador has left for New York and will not be at the embassy when they are delivered. The ambassador contends that he is only interested in knowing whether they were taken from von Igel. Regardless of their contents, he will insist upon their return.

Germans Cut Roads Into Serbia. Saloniki, April 21.—German troops have blown up ten bridges on the railway connecting Dobovitz, Dolan and Gjevelli, near the Greco-Serb frontier. The purpose of this destruction was apparently to hamper the Anglo-French forces when they begin their drive into Serbia.

Gen. Scott With Gen. Funston at Border

San Antonio, Tex., April 21.—Mag. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, Chief of Staff, stated upon his arrival here tonight that he would not go on to El Paso nor Columbus. He said the plan of his visit was to go over the situation of the army in Mexico with Gen. Funston and to leave for Washington within a few days. There was no news here today from the Parral district.

BISHOP HARDING LAUDS PATRIOTIC WORK OF BODY

Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth, One of the Founders, Is Remembered in Speeches of Evening.

Solemn and impressive ceremonies with words of eulogy for the daughters who have passed into the Great Beyond were conducted at last night's session of the twenty-fifth congress of the national society, Daughters of the American Revolution.

In solemn convocation the delegates paid tribute to the "founders" of the society which represents the patriots who freed the United States from the sovereignty of the King of England and created a land for those who sought freedom of speech and action.

Bishop Alfred Harding, in words that teemed with eulogies of the patriotic work of the descendants of those who fought in the revolutionary war and of those who founded the society, opened the ceremonies.

Mrs. William Cumming Story, president general of the society, called to the chair one who knew intimately one of the four founders of the national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution—Mrs. Willard S. Augsbury—historian general. Mrs. Augsbury in turn introduced, as the first speaker, Miss Ella Lorraine Dorsey, who was the personal friend of Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth.

Pays Beautiful Tribute.

Miss Dorsey paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of Mrs. Walworth, one of the founders and first editor of the Daughters of the American Revolution magazine, and one of the earliest corresponding secretary generals.

In eulogizing the life-work of Mrs. Walworth, Miss Dorsey said that she was a woman of wonderful personality and left to the daughters a heritage of faithful

MEXICAN PLANS HELD UP UNTIL SCOTT REPORTS

Cabinet Considers Reported Gathering of Strong Anti-American Forces.

AT PARTING OF THE WAYS

Expedition Must Prepare to Face Strong Opposition or Withdrawal.

BAKER'S STAND "UNCHANGED"

War Department Expects Gen. Scott to "Save Situation," Says Well-Informed Official.

BULLETIN.

El Paso, Texas, April 21.—Rumors were persistent about El Paso tonight that there had been a clash between American troops and Carranza troops near Casas Grandes, but it lacked confirmation in official circles.

The Cabinet yesterday discussed the critical situation of the American forces in Mexico. Admissions made by high officials after the Cabinet meeting leave no room to doubt a crisis is approaching which will compel this government to decide definitely whether it will continue the pursuit of Villa or withdraw the punitive expedition.

Dispatches to the State and War Departments furnish the administration with ample information that Carranzistas officers have warned Gen. Pershing and Col. W. C. Brown that "they must not advance a step farther into Mexico." These dispatches were considered by the Cabinet almost to the exclusion of other matters, it was said. It was declared they caused the visit of Gen. Scott, Chief of Staff, to Gen. Funston. His mission, it was declared, is to save the situation.

Secretary of War Baker discussed yesterday the threats from Carranzistas. He denied he had received official dispatches confirming the report of an ultimatum to the United States army, but suggested it was possible Gen. Pershing and Col. Brown had ceased operations because of the physical fatigue of their men and of the fagging of their horses. He indicated all the facts would not be known until Gen. Scott should report.

Danger Ahead of U. S. Troops.

It was plainly inferred from what Secretary Baker said that a dangerous coalition of anti-American forces had occurred just ahead of the United States troops, and that it was perilous for Gen. Pershing to attempt to penetrate farther into Mexico.

An official with intimate knowledge of all the State and War Department dispatches said:

"It may be a fact that Carranza military officers have actually told Gen. Pershing and Col. Brown that they cannot make another step forward in Mexico without peril to themselves. It may have been meant that it would be dangerous to enter Parral again. There may be such a danger, but we do not believe it originates with any person authorized to speak for Gen. Carranza."

"No decision had been made as to what course this government will pursue even though it should be shown by Gen. Scott's report that the opposition to a farther advance of the Americans is so strong that it might be able to stop them."

Gen. Scott's Report Will Decide.

It was believed last night that the government's decision would depend almost entirely upon Gen. Scott's report. Secretary Baker said that while he did not know definitely when he would hear from Gen. Scott, he hoped his report would be in Washington by tonight.

Secretary Baker said he was not aware of any purpose on the part of the administration to make any change affecting the expedition. He announced, however, that the Seventeenth Infantry had been ordered from Eagle Pass to Columbus, which is the expedition's base. It was said to be probable that Gen. Pershing has received 3,000 or 7,000 reinforcements recently.

It was asserted that the American forces would not be permitted under any circumstances to clash with Carranza regulars.

State Department dispatches from Hermosillo confirm reports of a fight between Mexican soldiers and Yaqui Indians.

ROMAN PRESS PRAISES U. S.

Rome, April 21.—President Wilson's personal appeal to Congress, the facts of which have just been reported here, occupies a prominent place in the press of the capital.

The Tribuna praises President Wilson for championing the rights of humanity and of all neutrals instead of the rights of a single nation. It says:

"Thanks to the high ideal established by President Wilson, to America will be reserved the role of the greatest champion of humanity."
